FUTURE PERSPECTIVES IN GREEN CARE

● 15.03 | ONLINE, FROM WAGENINGEN UNIVERSITY | 3:00 - 4:00 pm

Have you ever thought about the influence and added value of nature on health, well being and social inclusion? The Wageningen University and Elevate Health, partners of the Green4C project, have organised a presentation to illustrate some interesting opportunities in Green Care.

This event welcomes students from all universities.

It will be presented by:

- Danice Winkelhorst - Educational consultant & Project leader at Elevate Health
- Marjolein Elings - Business Unit Agrosystems Research at Wageningen University & Research
